

1 July 1957

MEMORANDUM FOR: SR/3, SR/7, SR/PP

SUBJECT : Meeting with AE CASSOWARY 15 on 27 June 1957

1. Contact with AE CASSOWARY 15 was made by the undersigned at the Haynes Point Inn, 1200 hours, 27 June 1957.
2. The purpose of the meeting was to:
 - a. Transmit to AE CASSOWARY 15 Soviet Ukrainian newspapers for his study and analysis.
 - b. Return to him a digest of the Soviet Ukrainian press which he had prepared and submitted for editing and comments.
3. Subject inquired about the AERODYNAMIC budget cut and was informed that the matter was still under study and that a final breakdown should be forthcoming in early July.
4. In reference to the digest of the Soviet Ukrainian press, the undersigned stated that he had relayed copies to interested parties and would report on the reaction to same in the future. He forewarned AE CASSOWARY 15 that in all probability the comments would be negative inasmuch as the similarity of the Soviet Russian and Soviet Ukrainian press precludes any need for extensive monitoring of the Soviet Ukrainian publications. However, AE CASSOWARY 15 was encouraged to monitor the Soviet Ukrainian publications and report items of interest in reference to the Ukrainian emigration in the Western world, and the effect of PP activities of such agencies as the CASSOWARY newspapers and bulletin, Voice of America, Radio Free Europe, Radio Liberation, and Radio Madrid. He was also asked to report on the Michailov Committee and other Soviet activities among the Ukrainian emigres in the West as reported in the Ukrainian emigre press.
5. AE CASSOWARY 15 stated that he will be attending a conference at Colgate, New York during the week 1-7 July 1957.
